Ven. Nyanaponika Thera

1. The Four Sublime States

Four sublime states of mind have been taught by the Buddha: Loving-kindness (metta), Compassion (karuna), Sympathetic Joy (mudita), Equanimity (upekkha) These four attitudes are said to be excellent or sublime because they are the right or ideal way of conduct towards living beings.

2. Roots of Good and Evil

An explanation on the roots of good and evil as taught by the Buddha, and the solution to these defilements of mind.

Ven. Suvanno Mahathera

1. The 31 Planes of Existence

The suttas describe the 31 distinct "planes" or "realms" of existence into which beings can be reborn during their long wanderings through samsara. These range from the extraordinarily dark, grim, and painful hell realms all the way up to the most sublime, refined and exquisitely blissful heavenly realms. Existence in every realm is impermanent; in the cosmology taught by the Buddha there is no eternal heaven or hell. Beings are born into a particular realm according to both their past kamma and their kamma at the moment of death.

Ven. Thanissaro Bhikkhu

1. Dhammapada - A Translation

A must-have book for all Buddhists. In English translation.
